

Amalfi Coast and Gulf of Naples

In the heart of Italy there is a sailing area in a class of its own. With the most beautiful coastal towns such as Amalfi and Positano. With the islands of Capri and Ischia, famous for their special beauty. And on the mainland a city like Naples, which stands for everything that defines Italy. Right next door is Vesuvius - and to commemorate the fateful eruption 2000 years ago, old Pompeii.

If you haven't sailed here, you can't know what you've been missing. You have to formulate it so clearly. Because when it comes to sailing in Italy, everyone only thinks of Elba, Sardinia and Sicily with the Aeolian Islands. In the sea in front of the metropolis of Naples you can experience one of the most beautiful potpourris of dolce vita that is imaginable within a week, with the exception of turquoise anchor bays, such as those found on the Costa Smeralda of Sardinia.
